

COOKIES

A cookie is a small piece of information sent by a web server to a web browser, which enables the Site to collect information about your browsing patterns. This then allows us to tailor the Site to your interests. They are widely used in order to make websites work as well as to provide business and marketing information to the owners of the site.

www.allaboutcookies.org is a good site to visit if you want to find out more about the use of cookies.

HOW DO WE USE COOKIES?

We use cookies on the Site for the following purposes:

- a. Technical reasons, for example to balance website traffic to ensure that you receive a consistent and reliable service.
- b. To enhance the ease of use of the Site users, for example remembering your preferences or login details.
- c. Gathering statistics on how users access and use the Site.
- d. Marketing, for example, to allow advertisers to display appropriate advertising and track its effectiveness. You can opt-out of receiving any marketing communications by contacting us using the contact details in the Contact Us section of our Site.

CAN YOU TURN OFF THESE COOKIES?

You can change your browser settings to turn off cookies. However, if you do change your settings and block certain cookies, this means that certain personalised features cannot be provided to you and you may not be able to have the full advantages of the site's features.
